WESTERN SYDNEY CITY DEAL

JOBS FOR THE FUTURE

The City Deal builds on the unique opportunity of the Western Sydney Airport, catalysing the new Badgerys Creek Aerotropolis to attract investment, increase job diversity and ensure equal access to opportunities.

Western Sydney Aerotropolis – a new airport city

The Australian and NSW governments will establish a Western Sydney Development Authority to become master planner and master developer of the Aerotropolis.

The Australian Government will enable the development of Commonwealth land at North Bringelly to kick start development at the Aerotropolis, supported by a NSW enabling infrastructure program.

Release of the Commonwealth owned Penrith Multi-User Depot, will also support jobs growth in the Penrith CBD. NSW and local governments will review land holdings to realise further opportunities.

Encouraging investment in the Western City

The Australian Government's $5.3 billion investment in the Western Sydney Airport will catalyse opportunity for the businesses and communities of Western Sydney. The three levels of government will jointly establish a Western Sydney Investment Attraction Office in Liverpool to attract domestic and international investment. A NSW Investment Attraction Fund will support the office.
